Both Soaring Eagle Casino & Resort and Saganing Eagles Landing Casino have recently undergone extensive renovations and expansion. There are currently around 3,000 employees between the two properties.

The job fair is scheduled to take place from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Human Resources Black Elk Building, 7500 Soaring Eagle Blvd. in Mount Pleasant. To apply online please click here or check out the flyer on their Facebook page for more information.

AMERICAN GAMING ASSOCIATION GEARS UP FOR RESPONSIBLE GAMING WEEK: SEPTEMBER 15 - 21ST

The American Gaming Association and its members prioritize responsible gaming as an integral part of our industry's daily operations. Responsible Gaming Education Week (RGEW)—September 15-21, 2019—provides an opportunity to showcase the gaming industry’s dedication to responsible gaming programs. It also provides a specific opportunity to refresh employee training, promote transparency and gaming literacy to customers and work with community partners on advancing responsible gaming initiatives.

Member companies of the AGA have access to a host of informational resources to assist with this year’s educational outreach campaign, which include Responsible Gaming trends infographics; sample employee quiz; and a sample employee newsletter. Persons can learn more at the American Gaming Association website.

OHIO COMMISSION ADOPTS FANTASY SPORTS RULES

On Wednesday, August 21, the Ohio Casino Control Commission which is charged with regulating fantasy sports contests in the state adopted a comprehensive set of rules governing the industry. William Cox, Assistant General Counsel for the Commission, told www.Cleveland.com that the state and the Fantasy sports industry operators worked cooperatively on the rules to provide clarification to how the industry is to operate in the state. Peter Schoenke, chairperson of the Fantasy Sports Trade Association, noted that the new rules affirms the industry’s legality and include “a bunch of consumer-protection measures, and we also worked to make it so that registration fees work for operators of all sizes.”

Business interested in applying for a license in Ohio can obtain information concerning the process at the state website.

Persons interested in the industry registration process can also contact, Aleah Page, Manager of Licensing – Casino Gaming and Fantasy Contests at fantasycontests@casinocontrol.ohio.gov or by phone at 614-387-5617.
